Juan Diego Siller
jsiller@alpek.com

Alejandra Bustamante
abustamante@alpek.com

Alpek Joins the S&P/BMV IPC Index, Expanding Visibility and Access to Global Investors

Monterrey, N.L., Mexico. September 14, 2026 — Alpek, S.A.B. de C.V. ("Alpek" or the "Company") announced today its return to the S&P/BMV IPC Index. The inclusion will become effective on September 21, 2026, as part of its semiannual rebalancing.

Alpek's inclusion is expected to broaden the shareholder base by increasing visibility among domestic and global investors while further enhancing share liquidity.

This milestone follows a series of strategic actions aimed at strengthening Alpek's investment profile. Among them, the spin-off from ALFA marked a key step in Alpek's evolution as a fully independent public company, significantly increasing the Company's Free Float.

Alpek reiterates its commitment to creating long-term value for its Shareholders.

To read the official press release by S&P Dow Jones Indices click here.

About Alpek: Alpek is a leading petrochemical company in the Americas, with operations across three business segments: Polyester (PTA, PET resin, PET sheet and thermoform, and rPET), Plastics and Chemicals (Polypropylene, EPS, specialty chemicals and industrial chemicals), and Others which is comprised mainly by energy commercialization. Alpek is a leading global producer of PTA and PET, one of the largest producers of rPET and EPS in the Americas, and the only producer of Polypropylene in Mexico. In 2025, Alpek reported revenues of U.S. $6,585 million and Comparable EBITDA of U.S. $489 million. The company operates 30 plants in the United States, Mexico, Canada, Brazil, Argentina, Chile, Oman, Saudi Arabia and the United Kingdom, and employs more than 5,000 people.